Good afternoon,

I really hope you all enjoyed our performance of A Midsummer Night's Dream as much as we did! It is so important to give the children an experience like they have had today; these are the things they will remember forever. As I am sure you know we are very passionate about the arts and developing creativity in our pupils, performing Shakespeare is one way to develop a love of literature and drama. Every one of the children now know the complicated story of A Midsummer Night's Dream and have completed a multitude of cross-curricular activities based on the text. We loved seeing what they achieved today and I am sure you are as proud as we are!

I also want to say a personal thank you for my wonderful gift...as I am sure you can guess it is horribly hard leaving and the words on Leti's piece of beautiful art really touched me. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I know as a Headteacher you can never please everyone all of the time, but I hope that you know that whatever else, I am 100% about the children. Always. Thank you for being lovely parents.

Spotlight on Excellence

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Holidays in term time

You have to get permission from the head teacher if you want to take your child out of school during term time.

You can only do this if:

you make an application to the head teacher in advance (as a parent the child normally lives with)

there are exceptional circumstances

It's up to the head teacher how many days your child can be away from school if leave is granted.

You can be fined for taking your child on holiday during term time without the school's permission.
